

106.1645

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312 / surveillance

February 27, 1923. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal, and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N.J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative located in the vicinity of #49 Carmen St., New Brunswick, N.J., and the Lord Sterling School.

While in the above mentioned vicinity, Operative observed a short old woman with Gray Hair, who was dressed in dark clothing, leave the house in which the Subject lives by way of the basement door. The Subject was observed by Operative two or three times moving between his home and the school building.

At about 8.15 p.m. the Subject came from his home, proceeded to and entered the school building, and after remaining there a short time, returned to his home.

Operative remained in the aforesaid vicinity, keeping the home of the Subject under surveillance until about 9.40 p.m., and then proceeded to the railroad station, boarded a train for New York City, and discontinued.